Sample Station Procedure - Lost Property Report (Fictional)

1. Purpose

This fictional procedure explains how a station handles a lost property report from a citizen.

2. Receiving the report

The duty officer asks the citizen for a description of the item, the place and time it was lost, and contact details. The officer then enters the report in the Lost Property Register.

3. Issuing the acknowledgement

The officer gives the citizen a numbered acknowledgement slip. The slip must show the register number and the date.

4. Checking found items

The officer checks the Found Item Register for a matching item. If a match is found, the officer follows Section 6 of the Sample Lost Property Act for return to the owner.

5. Follow up

If no match is found, the report stays open for 90 days. The officer calls the citizen once if a matching item is later found.

6. Closing the report

The report is closed when the item is returned or after 90 days. The closing date is written in the register.

1. Purpose (annex)

This fictional procedure explains how a station handles a lost property report from a citizen. This fictional procedure explains how a station handles a lost property report from a citizen.

2. Receiving the report (annex)

The duty officer asks the citizen for a description of the item, the place and time it was lost, and contact details. The officer then enters the report in the Lost Property Register. The duty officer asks the citizen for a description of the item, the place and time it was lost, and contact details. The officer then enters the report in the Lost Property Register.

3. Issuing the acknowledgement (annex)

The officer gives the citizen a numbered acknowledgement slip. The slip must show the register number and the date. The officer gives the citizen a numbered acknowledgement slip. The slip must show the register number and the date.

4. Checking found items (annex)

The officer checks the Found Item Register for a matching item. If a match is found, the officer follows Section 6 of the Sample Lost Property Act for return to the owner. The officer checks the Found Item Register for a matching item. If a match is found, the officer follows Section 6 of the Sample Lost Property Act for return to the owner.

5. Follow up (annex)

If no match is found, the report stays open for 90 days. The officer calls the citizen once if a matching item is later found. If no match is found, the report stays open for 90 days. The officer calls the citizen once if a matching item is later found.

6. Closing the report (annex)

The report is closed when the item is returned or after 90 days. The closing date is written in the register. The report is closed when the item is returned or after 90 days. The closing date is written in the register.